AND so we began . . .

500 suntanned faces in new and cleanly pressed uniforms, gathered together in the auditorium for the first all-school liturgy, the traditional opening of the new school year. There were high hopes for the year and also fear, but we made it through that first hot and sunny day of September 7, and so we will finish. But, here is where it all began for 1979-1980. A year of excitement? sadness? surprises? We did not know. Judging by the first day, our guess was that we should not guess, but wait and see.

This 1980 yearbook is dedicated to all of you who make us, Sacred Heart. For you, who carries the excitement. For you, who fills the halls with spirit. For you, who refuses anything that keeps you from being yourself. For you, who spreads the feeling of love and happiness. For you, the only one there is, This one is for you!

This one's for you — whoever you are
To say that nothing's been the same
. . . since we had begun
This one's for all the love we've gone through — Like everything else I have
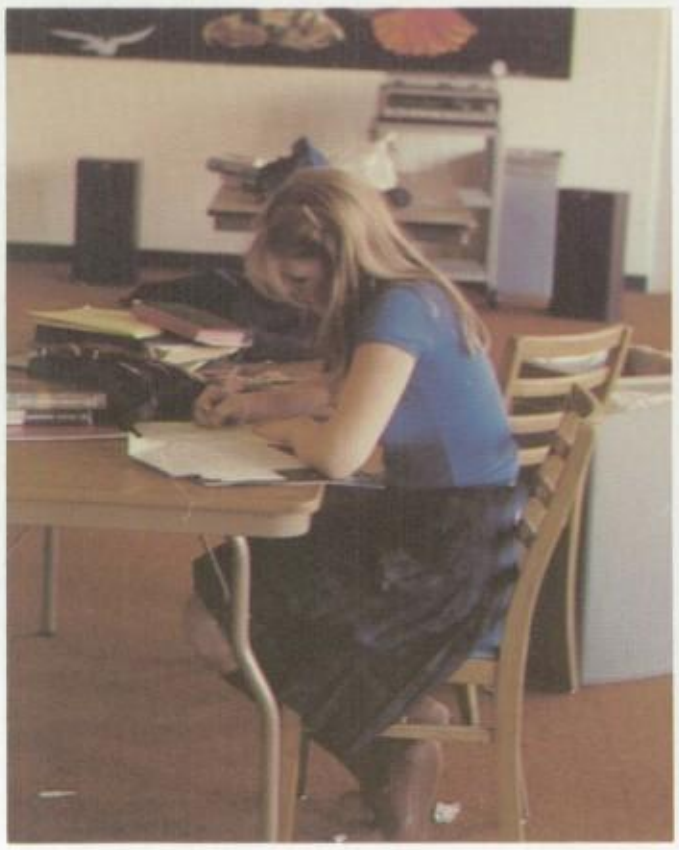
This one's for you

I've got it all it seems
— For all it means to me
But I think of things I miss,
And things that used to be
And I wonder every night
— If you might remember, too
And, this is for you,
This one's for you



This one's for you —
where ever we go
To say that the things I should have said
— Things that you should know

This one's to say that all we can do
— Is hope that you will see us out
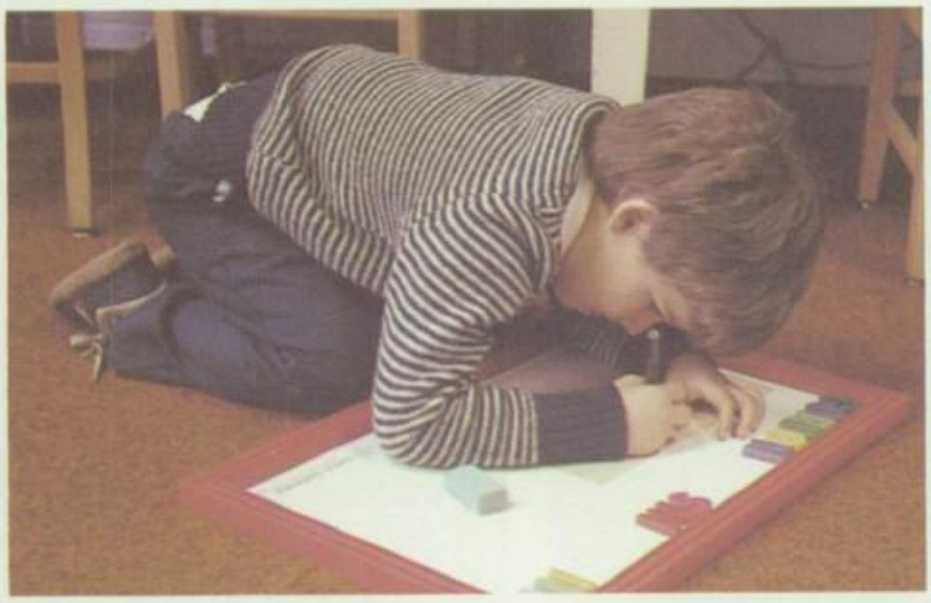
'Cause, this one's for you.



Thanks to a very special team . . .

We are where we are and are allowed to do the things necessary in developing our own individual selves because of a group who cares and understands what it is like and what we need when young. This group is the head of the four schools; Sr. Somerville, Sr. Herbst, Sr. Dolan, Mrs. Bisignano and, of course, Sr. Maxwell.

We thank this very special group, because without them we would not be the students we are now; we would be just another bunch in the crowd.

Marita Aragones

The little things
That make life sweet
Are worth their weight in gold;
They can't be bought
At any price,
And neither are they sold.

A little rose
A little kiss
From some dear one we know,
Drives care away
And helps us on
Our journey as we go.

The little smiles,
The little songs,
That cheer us up each day,
Are but a part
Of God's great art
To help us on our way.

— Estelle Waite Hoover

Sherri Marie Yezbick

To know someone here or there with whom you can feel there is understanding in spite of distances or thoughts unexpressed —
that can make of this earth a garden

— Goethe

Mimi Fitzer

Old days,
Good times I remember.
Fun days,
Filled with simple pleasure.

Take me back,
To a world gone away.
Memories,
Seem like yesterday.

Old days,
Good times I remember.
Gold days,
Days I'll always treasure.

— Chicago

Meghan McGlynn

Arise, go forth, and conquer.

— Tennyson

Michelle May

Experience teaches slowly, and at the cost of many mistakes.

— John Anthony Froude

If you will observe; it doesn't take
A man of giant mold to make
A giant shadow on the wall;
And he who in our daily sight
Seems but a figure mean and small,
Outlines in Fame's illusive light,
May stalk, a silhouette sublime
Across the canvas of his time.

— J.T. Trowbridge

Fay Gregory

The worst cliques are those that consist of one man.

Life is a game to play
So be a player;
Advance to start.

Nini Mayer

There are places I remember all my life
Some have gone and some remain
I know I'll never lose affection for People and things that went before
I know I'll often stop and think about them
In my life, I've loved them all . . .
Lately, I feel changes comin' on,
I know that I will soon be gone . . .
Hey, Hey, Bye, Bye, maybe I'll be back Someday now . . .

— Paul McCartney and John Lennon
Love and Good Luck to Everyone!

Lynn Mirabito

Love, the magician, knows this little trick whereby two people walk in different directions, yet always remain side by side.

— Hugh Prather

Diane Dolinshek

I am not afraid of tomorrow,
For I have seen yesterday and I love today.

— William Allen White

Claudia Bellaimey

Simple things mean a lot to me
Some things only children can see
Simple things like horses running free
And easy acceptance of life.

Simple things never compromise
All things have rhythm I can realize
I feel content in my freedom
And I feel my freedom is right.

I never want to stop being a child
I want to see the flowers growing wild on the hillside
To see the sunrise in the morning
Sunlight growing filling the skies.

Simple things of the earth don't die
They just grow and change as time goes by
There are no questions without answers
I found my answer to life is living
The secret of living is life.

— Carole King and Rick Evers

Lisa Yardley

There is a part of me that wants to write, a part that wants to theorize, a part that wants to sculpt, a part that wants to teach . . . To force myself into a single note, to decide to be just one thing in life, would kill off large parts of me. Rather, I recognize that I live now and only now, and I will do what I want to do this moment and not what I decided was best for me yesterday.

— Hugh Prather

The rainbow is more beautiful than the pot at the end of it, because the rainbow is now. And the pot never turns out to be quite what I expected.

Beth Koreman

The Road goes ever on and on
  Down from the door where it began.
Now far ahead the Road has gone,
  And I must follow, if I can,

Pursuing it with weary feet,
  Until it joins some larger way,
Where many paths and errands meet.
  And whither then? I cannot say.

— J. R. R. Tolkien

Maryanna Donaldson

The simplest questions are the most profound: Where were you born? Where are you going? Where is your home? Who are you with? Think about these once in a while and watch your answers change.

— Jonathan Livingston Seagull

Lisa Wilson

Wait a little while to welcome what you're after give it the time to find it's way to you as soon as you no longer try you'll turn and find it standing by your side
come and get it
when you let it
it'll come to you just forget it . . . and wait a little while . . .
. . . everything will come to you in time . . .

— Kenny Loggins

Mary Kuryla

Comes a time when you're drifting,
Comes a time when you settle down.
Comes a light, feelings lifting . . .
Lift that Baby right up off the ground.

Oh, This old world keeps spinning 'round
It's a wonder tall trees ain't laying down.
There comes a time . . .

You and I,
We were captured.
We took our souls and we flew away.
We were right, we were giving,
That's how we kept what we gave away.

Oh, this old world keeps spinning 'round
It's a wonder tall trees ain't laying down.
There comes a time,
There comes a time . . .
. . . comes a time.

— Neil Young

Cynthia Gonzalez

I find the great thing in this world is not so much
Where we stand, as in what direction we are moving.
To reach the port of heaven, we must sail
Sometimes with the wind and sometimes without
But we must sail, and not drift, nor lie
at anchor,

— Oliver Wendell Holmes

Mary Kay Bisignano

Two roads diverged in a wood, and I
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference . . .
I do not know where I am going
I only know where I am and where
I have been and that's enough . . .
I see my life branching out before
Me like a blossoming tree. From each
Branch a fruitful future beckons
But I must choose just one and leave
The others behind.

— Robert Frost and Me

Judy Appleford

I'm going to start walking the miles of my journey, to see the thing I haven't seen, to experience new things and find new loves. But at the same time, never forgetting the loves I left behind, the loves of home and the loves of friends, for I'll always keep and cherish them all in my heart. I'll start this journey with determination and joy for I'm not afraid of tomorrow for I lived yesterday and I love today.

— William Allen White and Me

Natalie Miller

If you search for tenderness
It isn't hard to find
You can have the love you need to live
But if you look for truthfulness
You might just as well be blind
It always seems to be so hard to give.

Honesty is such a lonely word
Everyone is so untrue
Honesty is hardly ever heard
And mostly what I need from you.

— Billy Joel

Margaret Brennan

A smile is a light in the window of a face that signifies the heart is at home and waiting.

Gems may flash reflective light, but what is the flash of a diamond compared with the flash of a smile.

— Henry Ward Beecher

Mary Margaret O'Neal

I am very young, I want to hold the trembling earth, and when I close my eyes, remember only its beauty, I must hurry before I grow old, I must hurry before I grow old.

Paula Goodwin

There're songs to make you smile
There're songs to make you sad
But with a happy song to sing
It never seems as bad.
To me came this melody
So I've tried to put in words how I feel
Tomorrow will be for you and me
I am singing of tomorrow.

From "Songs in the Key of Life"
Stevie Wonder

Susan Beauregard

As I become a success with your help,
Lord,
let me never forget that what I am
is more important than what I do.

Josephine Sosa

So many men seem destined to settle for something small
But I won't rest until I know I'll have it all
So don't ask me where I'm going
But listen when I'm gone
And far away you'll hear me singing
Softly to the dawn:

Rivers belong where they can ramble
Eagles belong where they can fly
I've got to be where my spirit can run
Free
Got to find my corner of the sky.

— Pippin

Robin Arcari

Now I'm walking out the door and I stop to think about all those people who mean so much to me,
and for so many years
have made me so very happy . . .
and I count the times
I have forgotten to say "Thank-you"
and just how much I love them.

— Unknown

Sarah Lowell

My choices were clear yet I froze with fear, of not knowing which way to go. One road was simple Acceptance of Life, the other road offered sweet peace.

Rulers make bad lovers. You better put your kingdom up for sale. What is love? Can a child within my heart rise above? Can I sail through the changing ocean tides, can I handle the seasons of my life? Well, I've been afraid of changing 'cause I've built my life around you. But times make you bolder. Even children get older! Well, I am gettin' older too. My life is changing in so many ways, I don't know who to trust anymore. But you know the times when you don't even try. We're finally on our own!

— Thanks Fleetwood, Joni, Neil and Dan

P.S. Now that you found yourself losing your mind, are you here again?

Madeleine Miehls

I do my thing, and you do your thing,
I am not in this world to live up to your expectations,
And you are not in this world to live up to mine.
You are you and I am I;
If by chance we find each other,
it's beautiful.
If not, it can't be helped.

— Fritz Perls

Lauren Mitchell

You've got to get up every morning with a smile on your face,
And show the world all the love in your heart.
Then people gonna treat you better
You're gonna find, yes you will
That you're beautiful as you feel.

— Carole King

Photographs and Memories
All that I have are these
To remember you.

Memories that come at night
Take me to another time
Back to a happier day
But we sure had a good time
When we started way back when.

Photographs and Memories
All the love you gave to me
Somehow it just can't be true
That's all I've left of you.

— Jim Croce

Ann Bartush

Do you know where you're going to,
Do you like the things life's showing
you,
Know where you're going to,
Do you know? . . .
Kiss today goodbye and point me toward tomorrow . . .
I've only just begun to live . . .

Mary Beth Huffman

I remember time gone by when peace and hope and dreams were high.
We followed inner-visions and touched the sky.
Now we who still believe won't let them die.

— Carole King

Maria Shreve

We choose each word we write for a reason — because it delights, because it seems to express, because it is as close as we can come. There is much of ourselves bound in the words we select, and nothing degrades more completely than to have our words dismissed lightly.

Often blackboards cannot contain an idea; to finish the point, we head off into the margins of the mind.

Vinita Almeida

Life is so generous a giver, but we, judging its gifts by their covering, cast them away as ugly or heavy or hard. Remove the covering and you will find beneath it a living splendor, woven of love, by wisdom, with power. Welcome it, grasp it, and you touch the angel's hand that brings it to you. Courage then to claim it, that is all!

— Fra Giovanni

Athena Kalevas

Life: quantity or quality?

"I'm going to transfer out of this school,"
said a college student.
"I'm so busy cramming for tests,
I haven't time to learn.
I've almost forgotten
How to sit back and really appreciate a good book."

Is this true of us, also?
Are we so busy with life
That we haven't time to live?
Have we, perhaps, forgotten
How to sit back and really appreciate life?

What does it profit a man
If he is so busy with the quantity
Of life
That he loses its quality?

Marguerite Brousseau

Look to this day
For it is life
the very life of life
In its brief course lie all the realities and truths of existence
the joy of growth
the splender of action
the glory of power
For yesterday is but a memory
And tomorrow is only a vision
But today well lived makes every yesterday a memory of happiness and every tomorrow a vision of hope
Look well, therefore, to this day!!!
— Ancient Sanskrit Poem
P.S. Nothing is impossible!!!

Sarah Gray

What do you say when they give you half a page and fourteen years to reflect back on? When I think of myself leaving Sacred Heart after all these years, there are so many things that I want to say! I would have put a quote from some profound human, but this is my chance to say goodbye and I thought I'd use my own words! In a way it's scary to think that I've been here so long and that leaving is going to be the first time I've ever said goodbye to a good number I've grown close to, but this girl is leaving with a smile on her face and the wind at her back because she knows that she's had a chance of a life-time and that from here on in it's going to be nothing but good times!! Thank you to the Community of the Sacred Heart for being the beautiful people that you are!

Love and God Bless You
Sarah

Susan Campbell

"To achieve all that is possible
I must attempt the impossible
To be as much as I can be
I must dream of being more"

Molly Juett

When I try hard to be funny, I am small and gray, but when I am easy with myself, allow other people's fun to sparkle through me and allow my own lightness to roll gently out of me, then good humor rhymes in all the sweet times around me.

P.S. To all my friends and family especially Mary's, Laura's and Sarah's: If you love me as I love you, no knife can cut our love in two.

Mary West

All the people at this party
They've got a lot of style
Some are friendly
Some are cutting
Some are watching it from the wings
Some are standing in the center giving to get something
I've got my books
And my poetry to protect me
I am a rock
I am an island
World turning
I've got to get my feet back on the ground
World turning
Mirror in the sky, what is love?
Can I shall thru the changing ocean tides?
Can I handle the seasons of my life?
Do you always trust your first initial feeling?
Special knowledge holds true, bears
believing
You must fly high oh free bird
We're finally on our own and very free
and easy, easy,
You know the way it's supposed to be!
Skating away,
Skating away on the thin ice of a new day.

— Joni, Simon and Garfunkle, Fleetwood Mac, Crosby, Stills, Nash and Young, L. Skynyrd, J. Tull, Julio, Monethea, Annie

Marta Ortiz

To reach the port of Heaven,
We must sail.
Sometimes with the wind
Sometimes against it —
But we must sail and not drift,
Nor lie at anchor.

— Oliver Wendell Holmes

Laura Jane Yankee

It is eternity now. I am in the midst of it. It is about me in the sunshine, I am in it, as the butterfly in the light-laden air. Nothing has to come; it is now. Now is eternity; now is the immortal life.

— Richard Jefferies

UNDERCLASSMEN

Classes of:

1981

1982

1983

Junior and Friends

Sophie van de Kerckhof went to Washington D.C. for winter term.

STANDING: Shelley Dyle, Sue Withrow, Marie Sienkowski, Holly Pancost. KNEELING: Angie Bellanger, Lisa Burgess.

TOP ROW: Mary Brigid Donahue, Anne Herrick. MIDDLE ROW: Lisa Kelly, Diana Herndon, Franci Ortiz. BOTTOM ROW: Colleen Graham.

The Junior Class is very enthusiastic this year. We are anxiously waiting for Senior Year to arrive. We are trying to become more united as we come to our year on top. We got much closer to this reality after we received our class rings in December and we will be even closer after the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Jamie Spittler came to our school from Omaha, Nebraska during our first term.

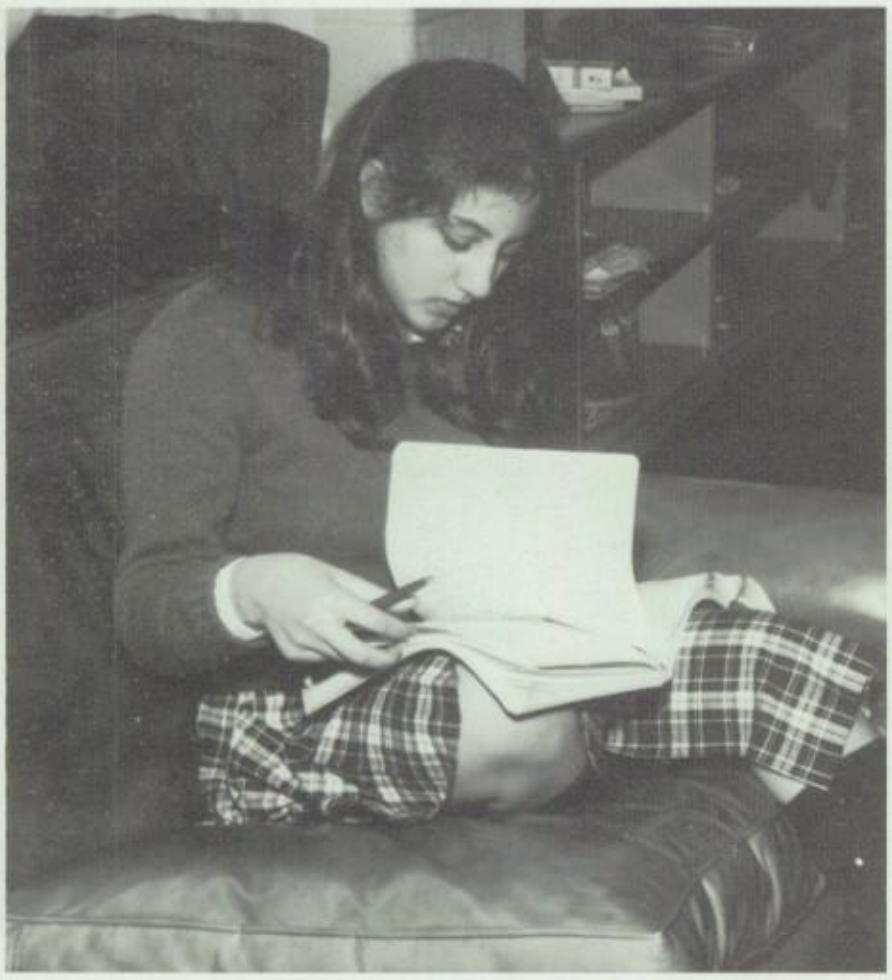
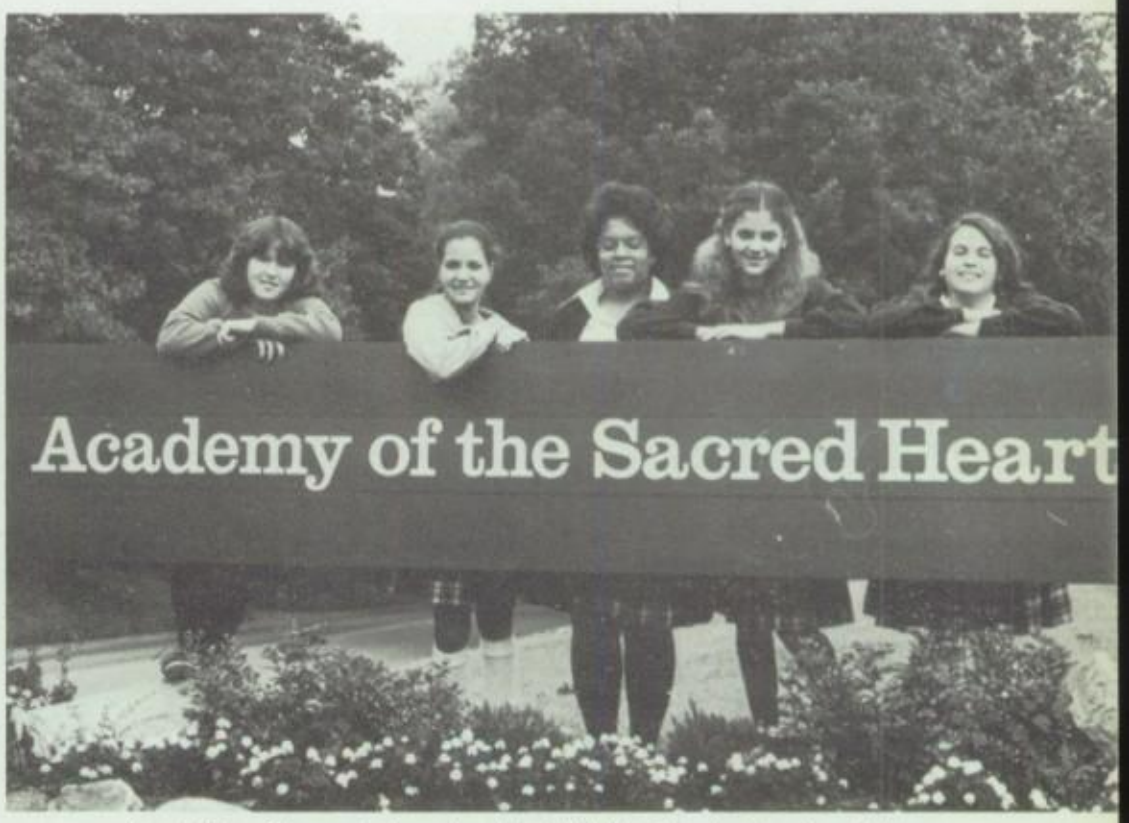
Monica Bisignano has gone to Omaha during the second term

STANDING: Cece Nichols, Adrienne Roberto. BOTTOM ROW: Mary Garske, Gretchen McGough, Beth Bowers, Jeannine Palma.

Left: Maureen Flanagan exchanged to our school winter term from our school in Newton, Massachusetts.

Sophomores Take on Their Second Big Step





Liz Miller, Stacey Acho, Jennifer Hill, Heather Luke, Ann Miller

SITTING IN TREE: Lisa Conrad, Natalie Follmer, Pam Lopez, and Beth Bisignano. STANDING: Jill Eicher, Marielle van de Kerckhof, and Mary Jeanne Day.

Laurie Federhart, Kathleen McBrearty, Nevine Gazayerli, Jennifer Conroy, Tiffany Kilar, Marjan Panah.

Kitty Costello went on exchange to the United Kingdom.

STANDING: Jackie Sosa, Sandra Samul, Pepi King, LaShelle Chambers. KNEELING: Andrea Pardales, Puran Ramin.

TOP ROW: Leslie Evans, Leslie Keros. STANDING: Paisley Lyne Megan Koreman, Eileen Callam, Anna Darin, Nadine Deocampo, (SCG Rep.), Cathy Cooney, and Paz Salas.

The Sophomore class arrived in September very optimistic and has remained that way throughout this year. We had just a few new girls in our class who mixed in well. The sophomore class is one that gets along well and is spirited. We have a good group of girls with many different talents; academically, musically, athletically, artistically, etc.

IN TREE: Kitty Costello. STANDING: Alex Korab, Laura Sipes, Liz Latos, Pam Bishop, Nancy Roman, Lisa Mancini and Tammy Wilkinson.

Freshman Year — The Longest Year in High School

The Freshmen have experienced the hardships of high school. With this new experience, we have learned not only academically but how to have unity as a class. In the beginning of the year, some of us leaned on our friends for moral support with the crash of homework. Now, this will be remembered and our reputations are riding high.

Nucleus Group

The SCG nucleus group does not stay hidden in Sr. Byrne's office this year, contrary to last year's popular belief. As "helicopters" we help group leaders plan many traditional and new activities. Communication between us and the rest of the student body improved because of the cooperation of each representative.

Below: The future Duschene School of Omaha's SCG group leaders. They came to Detroit and were hosted by the exchange and nucleus groups. They learned all about the SCG program which they hope to use next year.

Terms to know as a yearbook editor:

Organization: The key to success, or simply, the only way to produce a yearbook.
Involvement: Without involvement you get a one-man job instead of an actual group effort, plus the side effects of headache, nervous breakdowns and severe writer's cramp.
Imagination: (Who wants the same old thing every year?)
Cooperation: From staff, photography group, students, faculty, advisor, parents and business manager.
Willingness: Needed to get the job done and to push the others to help reach this goal.
Responsibility: To meet deadlines, and make all appropriate considerations of the Sacred Heart community in the yearbook.

I have found through experience that the key to success, the only way to produce a yearbook is to know and practice all of the above terms and to let people know you care by delivering the book on time.

— Linda Shaya
Editor-in-Chief

TOP ROW: Gaby Spina, Linda Shaya (group leader) Sue McBrearty, Laura Sipes, Connie Connoly, Bummie Mitchell, Jenny Yaw, Diane Tomalis, Kitty Costello, Mrs. Schmidt.

Photography

A big "Thank You" to this group for many of the pictures in this book! Not only did we provide pictures for "Crossroads," but we also took pictures for the newspaper. Taking pictures can be fun, but it does take time and effort!

Music Group

The Music Group serves to bring a greater awareness and interest of music and its many aspects to the student. Opportunities to express herself in the musical field and to listen to others in concert are offered.

Athletic Activities

Athletic Activities aim at raising Upper School Spirit! We advertise games through posters, banners, and pep rallies. In the spring we organize the Athletic Banquet and Field Day.

Student Exchange and Career Education

The Student Exchange and Career Education group is involved in many activities. The Exchange section keeps in touch with our other sister schools around the world while the career section informs the Upper School of the careers for women.

Project Term

Project Term has two main purposes: to plan the educational opportunities for the Project Term experience and raise funds for student grants to aid in financing the experiences. A new and successful fund-raiser has been initiated this year: a magazine subscription fund-raiser.

Liturgy Group

The most exciting and fascinating group in the school is in charge of preparing weekly prayer services and occasional liturgies. A big thank you to everyone in this group for an excellent year.

Community Service

The Community Service and Justice for the Poor group plans activities to help the poor people of the world such as hunger days, food collections, and clothing drives. We also help to evaluate the Community Service program through both weekly logs and monthly reflections.

Current Issues

Current Issues is an SCG group concerned with developing an awareness and concern with the student body for such issues as inflation. We have given assemblies and taken opinion polls to further encourage interest and participation in today's issues.

Art Group

The art group has done many things this year. We have made posters for the dances, designs for invitations, covers for the literary programs and other projects.

We have learned how important it is to work together.

Outdoor Environment

The group worked on raising the flag and surrounding it with beautiful rose bushes. A mural was designed and painted by the members of our group.

Taking Advantage of Detroit

The Taking Advantage of Metropolitan Detroit Group's purpose is to inform people and get them involved in activities in Detroit. We are having weekend field trips. We designed a tape tour of Detroit which we used with our Omaha visitors and others.

Newspaper

The "new and improved" ASH Gazette came off the press with many compliments this school year. As an SCG group the core members are Paula Goodwin, Editor-in-Chief; Adrienne Roberto, News Editor; Cathy Cooney, Sports; and Madeleine Miehls, Feature Editor with assistance from Mary Jeanne Day. These editors made assignments to the writers, providing more variety, more newsworthy material and more student-interest articles. Special features included Kathy Stephens' cartoon "The Perils of Pepina," Adrienne Roberto's "Investigative Reporter" column and Cindy Gonzalez's "Political Corner." More pictures, of course, helped to make the format attractive. The Parents' Board generously supported the newspaper again this year.

Interschool Activities

Interschool Activities is in charge of strengthening our relations with other schools. We provide a calendar of school and inter-school events and plan all school board meetings. We plan to have an exchange day with a public school and provide other activities for the student body.

Social Committee

The social committee is in charge of organizing dances, movies and other social events for the student body. This year, we are pleased with the success of our activities.

Michelle Nordin, Lisa Hardy, Lisa Mancini, Jackie Sosa, Natalie Miller, Laurie Federhart, Judy Szluha, Miss Allen, Sue Beauregard (group leader), Tiffany Kilar, Anne Bianco, Kathy McBrearty, Cathy Costello, Laura Toppin

Special Activities

The main purpose of the special activities group this year was to create school spirit and unite both the students and the faculty. We have done this by supporting the many Sacred Heart traditions such as Mardi Gras, St. Madeleine Sophie, a surprise congé, Christmas Wishes and Kris Kringle.

This year we went through a lot of sore backs, tired legs, and lots of fun. The work was hard (listening to Sr. Byrne "instruct" for two hours every day isn't exactly child's play!). Pleasures, however, were forever present and kept each of the twelve team members going through the late-August to mid-October season.

Our defeats were taken constructively instead of mournfully, and our wins were accepted with pride and yet with humility. After placing fourth in the regionals, we knew we had had a good season.

We said good-bye to our four "once-rookie" seniors, congratulating Marita Aragones and Meghan McGlynn for being placed on all-area team II, and to Mimi Fitzer who received an honorable mention. Though we have to let these vital members of the team go, we still look forward to a great season next year.

By the way, Thanks, Byrney! We couldn't have done it without you!

Love, all of us.

"If you return this shot, don't expect an 'A' this time!"

"Maybe you all should stick to teaching!"

These are just a few of the many comments heard on a very cold Sunday morning in October. Teachers and students alike bundled up, though, and played four rounds of round robin. The successful day showed all not only a good time, but also another side of us — the competitive side? Maybe, more like the fun and relaxed side which was nice to see.

The Oktoberfest this year was exciting and crowded. The turnout was excellent. Also, the number of things to do was numerous. There was a great variety of foods to go along with the games in and out of doors. Of course, there was dancing. You name it — it was there, even a jazz band!

Juniors and Seniors Together for Rings

Roses, carnations, rings, hugs and even tears. All part of the traditional Sacred Heart ring ceremony. On a cold day in December, Juniors and Seniors got together, processed down the aisle of the chapel, two-by-two, and shared together one of the most special days of high school. After the whole thing was over, Juniors and Seniors were closer than ever, together by a special fond found in the rings.

HALLOWEEN

Halloween has always been a joyous occasion especially at Sacred Heart. There were many activities; like a congé, the best costume contest, the best painted pumpkin contest and others. Most of the school participated in wearing a costume — even the faculty! It was a fun-filled day!!

These diligent students are commended for their excellence of character and their example to the rest of the student body.

Upper School Chorus

The Upper School Choir welcomed a new director for the 1979-80 school year: Mrs. Liz Bannister. She has formerly taught in the Lower School music department. The choir has been introduced to various new vocal and breathing exercises which have helped them in their fall and spring concerts. Under her leadership, the choir has experimented with various types of music extending from pop to religious. This year's Chrismas at Sacred Heart was fun. There was something going on every minute. We had a posada, our annual feast wishes with Santa, the Christmas play by the Lower School, and finally, a shortened version of The Little Prince starring Mary Kay Bisignano. The Middle School was not to be outdone by the Upper and Lower School. Their Christmas offering this year was the story A Christmas Carol by Dickens. Christmas-time at Sacred Heart always holds a special place in all of our hearts.

Christmas Semi-Formal

The dances this year were GREAT! We have never had more people attend. At both dances there was Standing Room Only! The bands were wonderful and everyone had an excellent time dancing and socializing. Maybe by the end of the night someone's "Winter Dreams" had come true!

Parents Board & Board of Trustees

The Parents Club is open to all parents of children attending the Academy and it is an integral part of the Sacred Heart family. The main purpose of the Club is to foster a bond between the parents so that they can work together with the faculty and administration in the development of Sacred Heart goals. It also serves as a vehicle to improve communication in the school community.

As a means of working towards its goal, the Parents Club sponsors a variety of events and activities. In addition, the club has funded a number of projects like the Nature Trail, student newspapers, gym equipment, etc.

It is through such joint efforts that we hope to enrich the quality of education at the Academy of the Sacred Heart.

The Board of Trustees is a good name for this group of people. They have a big job and a big responsibility and they can always be trusted to do a terrific job. This group handles things like communications, recruiting, finance, and education. Mr. Walter Fisher, Sr. Ann Conroy, Mrs. Sally G. Morgan, Mr. Paul Lorenz, Sr. Jean Bautz, Sr. Catherine Collins, Mr. Dennis A. Darin, Jr., Mr. Peter Darin, Mr. Jere Gillette, Sr. Joan Magnetti, and Sr. Gail O'Donnell are the people who make this group go!

Board of Trustees

Administration

Sr. Susan Maxwell is the head of the school, but she cannot do everything by herself. She has the help of Mr. Wenzel, the business manager, and the Public Relations Group — Mrs. Alicia Gillette, Mrs. Angie Golec, Mrs. Mary Jo Dawson as well as Mrs. Carol Kerr helping in Admissions.

And Here's Where We End . . .

500 tired but happy faces with wrinkled uniforms gathered together with the most spirit ever felt. The year turned out to be successful. There was excitement, sadness and many surprises. Now we face the summer ahead and await yet another school year, 1980-81. What will that year be like? We will just have to wait and see.

Here's where a lot of automotive news will come from in the next 70 years.

Rockwell's Automotive Operations has been making a lot of news, both on and off highway, for over 70 years.

Much of the news we'll be making in the next 70 years will originate in our 270,000-square-foot Technical Center in Troy, Michigan. It's the country's largest independent research facility devoted entirely to components for heavy-duty trucks, cars, buses and trailers — plus components for agricultural, logging, construction, military and mass transit vehicles.

In the recent past, our large technical staff has conceived and developed such innovative products as Stopmaster® II wedge brakes, SQHP™ tandem axles, Taper-Leaf® springs and Cam-Master® "Q" brakes. We're also a leader in electronic controls and monitoring systems for the ground transportation industry.

These products and other examples of Rockwell technology have not gone unappreciated. Today, one-half of all heavy-duty trucks and tractors are equipped with Rockwell axles — and over six out of ten heavy-duty highway units are equipped with Rockwell brakes. In fact, we are the world's largest supplier of driveline and chassis components for heavy-duty trucks. And a major supplier of springs, wheel covers, castings, forgings, special gear drives, styled aluminum and steel wheels, and reinforced plastic components for passenger cars and trucks, as well.

For more on what we're doing, on and off highway, write Automotive Operations, Rockwell International, 2135 W. Maple Road, Troy, Michigan 48084.

Criptonite —

Too bad we started too late . . . Pididles, punch, ouch, basketball courts, watching the tinted glass change the shades of the sky . . . Kick the habits in front of the headlights . . . Memories in the Baptist Church parking lot . . . Stick your head out of the window, no it's too cold . . . Turn the music down, more, more it's off! Volleyball practice, driving to Pontiac, paranoid? Neil Young, Fleetwood Mac, James Taylor, and our constant body aches! Wiggle my toes, Take the wheel! Can I have a ride, dirty looks! Was it worth it!

You Bet!

We'll miss you!

Love,

Obnoxious and Delinquent
